

The Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology at the Feinberg School of Medicine of Northwestern University, in partnership with the Program in Global Health Studies, presents the 2017

Summer
Lecture
Series

Fridays at 8AM

Prentice Women's Hospital
Canning Auditorium
3rd floor

Open to the public

GWHforum.com

GLOBAL WOMEN'S HEALTH

July 7 - Timothy Johnson, MD
Engaged Academic Global Health

July 14 - Doug Laube, MD
Unsafe Abortion: The Silent Killer

July 21 - Purnima Mane, PhD
Women's Health in South Asia:
Taking Stock of Progress and Setbacks

July 28 - Chris Curry, MD, PhD
Zika: The Miami Experience

August 4 - Paul Blumenthal, MD, MPH
Reproductive Health Interventions in Low-Resource Settings

August 11 - Evan Lyon, MD
Homeless Healthcare, Human Rights, and Criminal Justice

August 18 - Nathan Shaffer, MD
Prevention of mother-to-child HIV transmission:
30 years of a public health success story

August 25 - Mardge Cohen, MD
HIV and the Care of Women: 30 Years of Experience

September 1 - Noelle Sullivan, PhD
Global Reproductive Health from Below:
From Formal "Magic Bullets" to Informal Volunteer Practice